

LIVINGSTON-WATSON 95TH REUNION ANNIVERSARY

THEN

NOW

Is your interest piqued when you see “then” and “now” photos, or ever more so when you realize you were around at the time of the “then” photo? Ninety-five years ago is a long-ago “then” and most of us were not here in 1923 for the beginning of the Livingston-Watson Family Reunion. However, to be part of the “now” crowd, come to Livingston, Wisconsin, as we celebrate the 95th Livingston-Watson Family Reunion with a special 2-day event. Please save the dates, August 3 and 4, 2018, and make plans to participate in this historic reunion.

Friday, August 3, 2018, 1:00 p.m., Platteville, WI:

Genealogists and archivists will present a seminar on:

- Finding your roots – where to start
- Identifying sources to assist your inquiries
- Answering questions like how are you a “second cousin twice removed” or where do I search to find the answer to this question

This would normally cost you around $45, but we are getting it free!! We hope to have time for a “hands on” experience so come prepared with questions you have hit a roadblock on and devices to connect to the internet.

Friday evening, 5:00 p.m., catered dinner for everyone attending the reunion. Come for an evening of meet- and – greet, photo opportunities, and games and social time. Because the dinner is catered, we will need to have reservations ahead of the reunion. Please see the reservation ticket at the end of this document. RETURN REGISTRATION BY JUNE 30 (see last page).
